

As a truck driver I listen to the Traffic reports in the cities I have to go to, to see if I need to find another route due to wrecks or traffic jams. The radio in my truck only reaches 20 miles so with XM Radio I can receive the reports before I get to the cities. If you take the traffic reports off XM then I just add to the problems that's already there.